MEMORANDUM

Re: Special Meeting on 9/14/13

MEMO:

While we are providing limited notice of the special meeting, this is essentially amending the agenda to include items other than the budget.

The Sunshine Law does not require that an agency provide notice of each item that will be discussed via a published agenda, though the Florida Attorney General does recommend the publication of the agenda. However, courts have rejected the requirement that an agenda be published as it could preclude access to meetings by members of the public who wish to bring a specific issue before the agency. (Hough v. Stembridge, 278 So.2d 288 (Fla 3d DCA 1973).

In addition, while the FKMCD is not subject to the Administrative Procedures Act, even if it were, under the APA, F.S. §120.525 requires the agenda be available 7 days prior to the meeting, but the agenda may still be amended/changed for good cause. I would note, however, that the Florida Attorney General has cautioned against adding items without notice to the public of items that may be controversial. (AGO 03-53).

In order to err on the side of caution, we are treating the addition of the items as a special meeting and providing additional notice to the public. Special meetings should have at least 24 hours reasonable notice to the public. In addition, the notice should be displayed in the area of the agency’s offices set aside for that purpose, use press releases and/or phone calls to wire services and other media as appropriate, and in cases of rezoning, taxation, budgeting and other areas of critical public concern, advertising in a newspaper of general circulation. (AGO 00-08, 94-62, 90-56).

While we believe we are essentially amending the agenda by adding action items other than the budget, providing 24 hours’ notice of limited time sensitive items provides additional assurances that the actions taken are done so appropriately.
